Summary

Leaders and Members of the Senate and the House of Representatives, the Vice President, individuals in positions on the Executive Schedule (EX), and federal justices and judges - all hereafter referred to as federal officials - receive an annual pay adjustment under the Ethics Reform Act of 1989, P.L. 101-194 (103 Stat. 1716 , at 1769,5 U.S.C. §5318 note). The percentage change in the wages and salaries for the private industry workers element of the Employment Cost Index (ECI), minus 0.5\% (December indicator) provides the basis for the pay adjustment. In January 2007, the Vice President and individuals paid on the EX schedule received a $1.7 \%$ salary increase. The Continuing Appropriations Resolution for FY2007, P.L. 109-383, enacted on December 9, 2006, which expired on February 15, 2007, delayed the $1.7 \%$ pay increase for Members of Congress until February 16, 2007. Section 115 of P.L. 110-5, the Revised Continuing Appropriations Resolution for FY2007, enacted on February 15, 2007, denies the Members a pay adjustment in 2007. Federal justices and judges cannot receive the $1.7 \%$ pay adjustment until Congress specifically authorizes it. To date, Congress has not enacted authorizing legislation. S. 197, to provide the authorization, passed the Senate by unanimous consent on January 8, 2007, and was referred to the House Committee on the Judiciary where it is pending. H.R. 2829, the Financial Services and General Government Appropriations Act for FY2008, as ordered reported in the Senate on July 12, 2007, authorizes the FY2007 judicial pay adjustment at Section 305.

EX pay rates provide limitations on maximum basic pay rates for Members of the Senior Executive Service (SES) and employees in senior-level (SL) and scientific and professional (ST) positions. EX pay rates also provide limitations on basic pay, basic pay and locality pay combined, and total compensation for employees in General Schedule (GS) positions.

This report includes five tables which provide the January 2004, January 2005, January 2006, and January 2007 salaries for federal officials, members of the SES, and employees in SL, ST, and GS-15 positions in the Washington, DC, and the "Rest of the United States" locality pay areas. It will be updated as more information about future pay increases becomes available.

Legislative, Executive, and Judicial Officials

A provision in the Ethics Reform Act of 1989 provides for an annual salary adjustment for leaders and Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, the Vice President, individuals in positions on the Executive Schedule (EX), and federal justices and judges. ${ }^{1}$ The adjustment is based on the percentage change in the wages and salaries (not seasonally adjusted) for the private industry workers element of the Employment Cost Index (ECI), minus $0.5 \%$ (December indicator). ${ }^{2}$ It becomes effective at the same time as, and at a rate no greater than, the annual base pay rate adjustment for federal white-collar civilian employees under the General Schedule (GS). ${ }^{3}$ The adjustment cannot, however, be less than zero or greater than $5 \%{ }^{4}$ While this provision of the Ethics Reform Act sets the rate of the judicial pay adjustment, a 1981 law provides that any salary increase for justices and judges must be "specifically authorized by Act of Congress hereafter enacted." ${ }^{5}$

CRS-2

The legislative, executive, and judicial officials are all hereafter referred to as federal officials. The Vice President and individuals paid on the EX schedule received a $1.7 \%$ salary increase in January 2007. The $1.7 \%$ pay increase for Members of Congress was delayed until February 16, 2007, by Section 137 of the Continuing Appropriations Resolution, P.L. 109-383, which was enacted on December 9, 2006, and expired on February 15, 2007. ${ }^{6}$ Section 115 of P.L. 110-5, the Revised Continuing Appropriations Resolution for FY2007, enacted on February 15, 2007, denies the Members a pay adjustment in 2007. ${ }^{7}$ Until Congress specifically authorizes it, the $1.7 \%$ pay adjustment for federal justices and judges cannot be provided.

1991. Adjustment was $3.6 \% .^{8}$ P.L. 101-520, Title III, §321, November 5, 1990; 104 Stat. 2254, at 2285, authorized the judicial pay adjustment.

[^1]1992. Adjustment was 3.5\%. P.L. 102-140, Title III, §305, October 28, 1991; 105 Stat. 782, at 810, authorized the judicial pay adjustment.

1994. Projected adjustment was $2.1 \%$. Congress passed legislation freezing salaries for Members of Congress (P.L. 103-6, §7, March 4, 1993; 107 Stat. 33, at 35). Federal officials did not receive a pay adjustment because GS base pay was not adjusted (P.L. 103-123, §517B, §615, October 28, 1993; 107 Stat. 1226, at 12531254, 1261-1263).
1995. Projected adjustment was $2.6 \%$, but would have been limited to GS base pay adjustment of $2.0 \%$. Federal officials did not receive a pay adjustment (P.L. 103329, §630(a)(2), September 30, 1994; 108 Stat. 2382, at 2424).

1998. Projected adjustment was $2.9 \%$. Adjustment was $2.3 \%$, the same as the GS base pay adjustment. P.L. 105-119, Title III, §306, November 26, 1997; 111 Stat. 2440, at 2493, authorized the judicial pay adjustment.
1999. Projected adjustment was $3.4 \%$, but would have been limited to GS base pay adjustment of $3.1 \%$. Federal officials did not receive a pay adjustment (P.L. 105277, §621, October 21, 1998; 112 Stat. 2681, at 2681-518).
2000. Adjustment was $3.4 \%$. P.L. 106-113, Div. B, §1000(a)(1) [Title III, §304], November 29, 1999; 113 Stat. 1501, at 1535, 1501A-36-A37, authorized the judicial pay adjustment.

The judicial pay adjustment has not yet been authorized. S. 197, to provide the authorization, passed the Senate by unanimous consent on January 8, 2007, and was referred to the House Committee on the Judiciary where it is

[^2]pending. ${ }^{10}$ Section 305 of H.R. 2829, the Financial Services and General Government Appropriations Act for FY2008, as ordered reported in the Senate on July 12, 2007, authorizes the FY2007 judicial pay adjustment.
2008. Projected adjustment is $2.7 \%$, but may be lowered depending on the size of the GS pay adjustment. ${ }^{11}$

For an analysis of congressional staff salaries which are tied to Member of Congress pay rates, see CRS Memorandum, Effect of Congressional Pay Freeze on Officer and Staff Salaries, by Ida A. Brudnick (available to Members of Congress and their staff from the author).

The President's current salary became effective at noon on January 20, 2001, and was established by the Treasury and General Government Appropriations Act, 2000, P.L. 106-58, Title VI, §644, Sept. 29, 1999; 113 Stat. 430, at 478; 3 U.S.C. §102. For a discussion of the President's salary, see CRS Report RS20115, President of the United States: Compensation, by Barbara L. Schwemle.

The salary for the Director of the Administrative Office (AO) of U.S. Courts is the same as that of U.S. District Court Judges (28 U.S.C. §603). The salary for the Deputy Director of the AO is $92 \%$ of the AO Director's salary (28 U.S.C. §603). The salary for the Director of the Federal Judicial Center (FJC) is the same as the AO Director's salary ( 28 U.S.C. §626). The salary for the Deputy Director of the FJC is the same as the Deputy AO Director's salary (28 U.S.C. §626). The salary for the Administrative Assistant to the Chief Justice cannot exceed the AO Director's salary (28 U.S.C. §677). Salaries for Circuit Executives cannot exceed EX Level IV (28 U.S.C. §332(f)(1)).

Total compensation for Circuit Executives, the AO Director, and the Deputy AO Director may be up to the Vice President's salary. (Homeland Security Act of 2002, P.L. 107-296, Title XIII, $\S 1322$, Nov. 25, 2002; 116 Stat. 2135, at 2297-2298; 5 U.S.C. §5307(d)). This provision also applies to employees paid under 28 U.S.C. $\S 604$ which authorizes the AO Director to set compensation for clerks of court, deputies, librarians, criers, messengers, law clerks, secretaries, stenographers, clerical assistants, and other employees of the courts whose compensation is not otherwise fixed by law. Performance appraisal systems for employees, "as designed and applied," must make "meaningful distinctions based on relative performance." The AO Director is responsible for any regulations (which must be consistent with the Office of Personnel Management and Office of Management and Budget regulations for members of the SES and SL and ST employees), certifications, or other measures necessary to implement the provision. Certification is for a period of two calendar years, but may be terminated at any time upon a finding of nonconformance with applicable requirements. This provision is under study by the Judicial Conference Committee on Judicial Resources.

Notes: The January 2007 pay adjustment provided for by the Ethics Reform Act was $2.0 \%$ ( $2.5 \%$ minus 0.5\%) according to U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Employment Cost Index - December 2005 (Washington, DC: Jan. 31, 2006), p. 14. The pay adjustment, however, can be no greater than the annual base pay rate adjustment for federal white-collar civilian employees under the General Schedule (GS). For January 2007, the GS base pay adjustment required by law is $1.7 \%$ according to U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Employment Cost Index September 2005 (Washington, DC: Oct. 28, 2005), pp. 2, 14.
*Section 115 of P.L. 110-5 denies a pay adjustment in 2007 to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Majority and Minority Leaders of the House and Senate, and the Senators, Representatives, Resident Commissioner of Puerto Rico, and Delegates. (P.L. 110-5, §115, Feb. 15, 2007, 121 Stat. 8, at 12; 2 U.S.C. $\S 31$ note.)
For the Judicial Branch officials, these salaries would become effective in January 2007, if Congress separately authorizes the $1.7 \%$ pay adjustment for justices and judges. S. 197, to provide the authorization, passed the Senate by unanimous consent on January 8, 2007, and was referred to the House Committee on the Judiciary where it is pending. H.R. 2829, the Financial Services and General Government Appropriations Act for FY2008, as ordered reported in the Senate on July 12, 2007, authorizes the FY2007 judicial pay adjustment at Section 305. If the authorization is not provided, the salaries will remain at the January 2006 levels shown in Table 1 above.
S. 1638, the Federal Judicial Salary Restoration Act of 2007, is currently pending in the Senate Committee on the Judiciary. The bill, introduced by Senator Patrick J. Leahy on June 15, 2007, would provide a $50 \%$ pay adjustment to justices and judges. Specifically, it would increase the salary for district court judges and Court of International Trade judges to $$ 247,800$, the salary for Courts of Appeals judges to $$ 262,700$, the salary for Associate Justices of the Supreme Court to $$ 304,500$, and the salary for the Chief Justice of the United States to $$ 318,200$. The legislation would authorize to be appropriated such sums as necessary to carry out the act and would become effective on the first applicable pay period beginning on or after the act's enactment.

Senior Executive Service and Certain Senior-Level Positions

Maximum basic pay rates for members of the Senior Executive Service (SES) and certain senior-level positions are tied to the Executive Schedule. An individual in an SES position: (1) directs the work of an organizational unit; (2) is held accountable for the success of one or more specific programs or projects; (3) monitors progress toward organizational goals and periodically evaluates and makes appropriate adjustments to such goals; (4) supervises the work of employees other than personal assistants; or (5) otherwise exercises important policy-making, policydetermining, or other executive functions. ${ }^{12}$ Salaries for members of the SES are determined annually by agency heads "under a rigorous performance management system," and range from the minimum rate of basic pay for a senior level (SL) employee ( $120 \%$ of the minimum basic pay rate for GS-15; $$ 111,676$, as of January 2007) to either EX Level III ( $$ 154,600$ as of January 2007), in agencies whose performance appraisal systems have not been certified by the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) as making "meaningful distinctions based on relative performance," or EX Level II ($168,000, as of January 2007), in agencies whose [^3]performance appraisal systems have been so certified. ${ }^{13}$ Total compensation ${ }^{14}$ for members of the SES in agencies whose performance appraisal systems "as designed and applied" have been certified by OPM may be up to the Vice President's salary ( $$ 215,700$, as of January 2007) ${ }^{15}$ and up to EX Level I ($186,600, as of January 2007) in agencies whose performance appraisal systems have not been so certified. ${ }^{16}$ Table 3 below shows January 2004 through January 2007 salaries for the SES.

Basic pay for certain senior-level positions - positions classified above GS-15 (SL pay schedule) and scientific or professional positions (ST pay schedule) ranges from $120 \%$ of the minimum rate of basic pay for GS-15 ($111,676, as of January 2007) to EX Level IV ( $$ 145,400$, as of January 2007). ${ }^{17}$ SL and ST employees (unlike individuals in positions on the EX schedule or members of the SES) receive locality-based comparability payments. The total of base pay and locality pay cannot exceed EX Level III ( $$ 154,600$, as of January 2007). ${ }^{18}$ Total compensation for SL and ST employees in agencies whose performance appraisal systems "as designed and applied" have been certified by OPM may be up to the Vice President's salary $\left($ 215,700\right.$, as of January 2007) ${ }^{19}$ and up to EX Level I ( $$ 186,600$, as of January 2007) in agencies whose performance appraisal systems have not been so certified. ${ }^{20}$ Table 4 below shows January 2004 through January 2007 salaries for SL and ST employees in the Washington, DC, and "Rest of the United States" locality pay areas. ${ }^{21}$

General Schedule GS-15 Positions

The General Schedule (GS) is the basic pay schedule for federal white-collar employees. It is divided into grades of difficulty and responsibility of work. There are 15 grades and 10 steps within each grade. The duties attached to positions at each grade are stated in statute at 5 U.S.C. $\S 5104$. Those for a GS-15, the top level of the schedule, are these:
(A) to perform, under general administrative direction, with very wide latitude for the exercise of independent judgment, work of outstanding difficulty and responsibility along special technical, supervisory, or administrative lines which has demonstrated leadership and exceptional attainments;
(B) to serve as head of a major organization within a bureau involving work of comparable level;
(C) to plan and direct or to plan and execute specialized programs of marked difficulty, responsibility, and national significance, along professional, scientific, technical, administrative, fiscal, or other lines, requiring extended training and experience which has demonstrated leadership and unusual attainments in professional, scientific, or technical research, practice, or administration, or in administrative, fiscal, or other specialized activities; or
(D) to perform consulting or other professional, scientific, technical, administrative, fiscal, or other specialized work of equal importance, difficulty, and responsibility, and requiring comparable qualifications. ${ }^{22}$

GS employees receive an annual adjustment to basic pay and a locality-based comparability payment. EX pay rates provide limitations on GS pay. Basic pay cannot exceed EX Level V ($136,200, as of January 2007), basic pay and locality pay combined cannot exceed EX Level IV ($145,400, as of January 2007), and total compensation cannot exceed EX Level I ( $$ 186,600$, as of January 2007). ${ }^{23}$ GS-15 employees at the upper end of that pay grade in nine areas are currently affected by the EX Level IV cap on basic pay and locality pay combined as follows:

- employees at step 10 in the (1) Boston-Worcester-Manchester, MANH Combined Statistical Area (CSA), plus the Providence-New Bedford-Fall River, RI-MA Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA), Barnstable County, MA, and Berwick, Eliot, Kittery, South Berwick, and York towns in York County, ME; (2) Chicago-NapervilleMichigan City, IL-IN-WI CSA; (3) Detroit-Warren-Flint, MI, CSA, plus Lenawee County, MI; (4) Hartford-West Hartford-Willimantic, CT CSA, plus the Springfield, MA MSA and New London County, CT; and (5) San Diego-Carlsbad-San Marcos, CA MSA;
- employees at steps 9 and 10 in the (1) Houston-Baytown, Huntsville, TX CSA; (2) Los Angeles-Long Beach-Riverside, CA CSA, plus the Santa Barbara-Santa Maria-Goleta, CA MSA and all of Edwards Air Force Base, CA; and (3) New York-Newark-Bridgeport, NY-NJ-CTPA CSA, plus Monroe County, PA and Warren County, NJ;

[^6]- employees at steps 7, 8, 9, and 10 in the San Jose-San FranciscoOakland, CA CSA, plus the Salinas, CA MSA and San Joaquin County, CA.

    ${ }^{2}$ The term "base quarter" means the three-month period ending on December 31 of a year. The ECI for the last base quarter is reduced by the ECI for the second to last base quarter, the resulting difference is divided by the ECI for the second to last base quarter, and the quotient is multiplied by 100 .

Under 5 U.S.C. §5318(a), salaries are rounded to the nearest multiple of $$ 100$ (or if midway between multiples of $$ 100$, to the next higher multiple of $100).

(28 U.S.C. §461(b).)

    provides " $[t]$ hat nothing in this limitation shall be construed to reduce any salary which may be in effect at the time of enactment of this joint resolution nor shall this limitation be construed in any manner to reduce the salary of any Federal judge or of any Justice of the Supreme Court." Congress enacted this provision of law in the wake of a court decision (U.S. v. Will, 449 U.S. 2000 (1980)) brought by several judges on behalf of the entire Judiciary which resulted in the restoration of two (1976 and 1979) of four (1976-1979) judicial pay adjustments that Congress had rejected. The provision was made permanent in the Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, The Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act, 2002, P.L. 107-77, Title VI, §625, November 28, 2001; 115 Stat. 748, at 803 .

The House passed the resolution on a 286 to 140 vote (Roll No. 72) on January 31, 2007. (The rule on consideration of the resolution was passed on a 225 to 191 vote (Roll No. 67) the same day.) The Senate passed H.J.Res. 20 on an 81 to 15 vote (No. 48) on February 14, 2007. The resolution continues appropriations through September 30, 2007.

The Senate later passed legislation (Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, 1992, P.L. 102-90, August 14, 1991; 105 Stat. 450-451) which became effective on the day of enactment and provided Senators with the same pay as Representatives.
